Good afternoon,

I'd like to briefly submit on the clean car subsidies submission to request that you please include e-bikes in the scheme. They are less wasteful to produce than full size cars and take up less space on the road, so can help to ease congestion as well as reduce emissions. They are currently beyond most New Zealanders' means, but are relatively inexpensive compared to e-vehicles, so a financial subsidy could benefit more people for the same overall cost. Finally, they have much more potential to improve population health and wellbeing through increasing physical activity than do cars.

Yours sincerely,
Rebekah Thorne
